

Talking About Teasing

Charles is telling Angie something that is making her feel bad. He is teasing her. Two other children are running away.

What do you think Charles is saying?

Why do you think the other children are running away?

Draw a picture of what you think Angie should do or say:

