

The Miracle Question

Think about the biggest problem in your life. Now imagine that a miracle took place and that problem no longer existed. In the space below, write about how your life would be different.

