Overcoming Setbacks

Overcoming your problems usually takes a lot of work and you may experience setbacks for a variety of reasons.

Setbacks most commonly occur when you stop practicing the psychological skills you learned to overcome your problems. They can also occur when you are under a lot of stress. Other times setbacks can occur because they are triggered by a certain event. Sometimes a setback can occur because of a change in your lifestyle (sleeping, eating, exercise) or because you have made some unhealthy choices like drinking too much or taking drugs.

Don’t be upset if you have a setback with your problems, even if unwanted symptoms reoccur. Setbacks are common because stress and change in your life are constant.

Don’t let setbacks give you the feeling that you are back to where you started. Setbacks are temporary, and just a sign that you need to pay attention to the kind of life you want to live every day.

The easiest way to avoid setbacks is to prepare for them. Filling out this worksheet will help you think about the kinds of things that can cause a setback and recognize the early signs that your problems may be recurring. Answer these questions thoroughly and honestly.
