

Be Flexible About Your Plans

There are lots of reasons why plans don't work out. Audrey had planned on inviting her friends Haley and Kat to the playground, but the weather report said it was going to rain all day. Can you write in or draw in three things that Audrey could do with her friends even though it was going to rain?

