

What Do You Like About Your Friends?

What are the qualities you like best about your friends? Think about all the kids you know. Which ones would get awards for the things they do that make them great friends? Write down the name of the person who would win each award. One person can win more than one award. If you like, you can color in these awards, cut them out, and give them to your friends.

