

Guess Who Is Coming to Dinner?

Think of someone you would love to meet. Perhaps it's someone who is in the headlines. Perhaps it's someone from history. Maybe it's even a fictional character.

Draw yourself having dinner with that person and then answer the questions on the following pages.

Draw a picture of yourself and someone you've always wanted to meet at dinner.

Why did you choose this person?

---

---

---

What are some qualities you admire in this person?

---

---

---

In what ways would you like to be like this person?

---

---

---

What would you want to ask this person?

---

---

---

---

---

---

Who else would you want to invite to this dinner?

---

---

---

Meeting someone you admire greatly can be a life-changing experience. How do you think this meeting might change you?

---

---

---