

Making a New Plan

For You to Think About

Sometimes kids and teens find themselves in situations they never imagined. For example, Samantha was told by her parents that they were moving to a new home 100 miles away and she would have to go to a new school. When something like this happens you have to make a new plan about your life. Maybe you can make a plan that is even better than the old one?

In the box below, draw a picture of something that you really want to do from your new plan.

Now write the steps you need to take to make sure that your plan comes true:
