

Fishing with My Dad

Skill: Patience

The Story

My dad is taking me fishing today. I love fishing with my dad. I have my pole and my worms. I'm all ready to go.

But my dad isn't ready to go. He has to finish some work first.

He tells me to be patient. He will be ready soon.

I don't want to be patient. I want to go now!

But I take a deep breath. I try to be patient. It is easier to be patient if I am busy.

I go to my room and get my book. I read while I wait for my dad.

Now he is ready. Now we are going fishing!

The Facts

- It's hard to be patient.
- Find something to do while you wait.

Questions

- How do you feel when someone tells you to wait?
- What can you do to be patient?