

Trust

Think About This

How do you trust yourself?

How do you show the important people in your life that you trust them?

TRUST!

The words below describe how it feels to trust someone. You can draw art to go with each page of text. You can use the art suggestion for each page, or you can come up with your own ideas. When you finish, you can print the pages to make a book. Share it with someone you trust.

When you trust someone you feel safe with them

It's like they are always on your team

Draw yourself with a person or a creature you trust.

Draw you and a friend
on the same team.

Draw a friend cheering you on as you are about to make a home run or win a race.

Draw a friend giving you a happy surprise.

Draw a friend showing how much they trust you.

Draw a picture of yourself.

Who can you trust? _____
